FAMOUS PREACHER

Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of New York Is Bankrupt.

New York, Sept. 23.—Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, famous pastor of historic Plymouth Congregational church in Brooklyn, in his pulpit yesterday, confessed to a congregation that he had loved position too much, and that he had cherished his own interests, while he neglected the "sick, the poor, the friendless and the boys and girls of hungry minds."

Simply, slowly and briefly he confessed his failure and said he would soon start life anew—without property and without debt. His hearers swayed forward as he spoke. Men made no effort to cloak their feelings. Like the women beside them they permitted tears to flow over their cheeks, and when it was all over they thronged to the pulpit, wrung the hands of their beloved pastor and told him his sorrows were their sorrows, his woes their woes and his burdens their burdens also.

The debts of Dr. Hillis will amount to more than $100,000.

To add to his troubles Dr. Hillis has been sued for $50,000 for libel. The plaintiff in the action is Percy D. Hillis, a nephew of the clergyman, with whom for several years Dr. Hillis maintained intimate business relations as a result of Dr. Hillis' extensive financial interest in timber projects in the Northwestern States and Canada.

The nephew was recently referred to as one of the causes of his failure.

Unusual Offer To Our Readers.

For a limited time, and subject to withdrawal after 30 days, the well known publishing house of the J. B. Lippincott Company, Philadelphia, founded in 1792, offers to the readers of this paper a 12 months' subscription to "Lippincott's Magazine" and a year's subscription to the Kentuckian, both for $3.00. This is the price of a twelve months' subscription to "Lippincott's" alone. Additional to obtaining every issue of this paper for a year, our readers will receive in "Lippincott's," 12 great complete novels by popular authors, 105 short stories, crisp, entertaining, original 45 timely articles from the pens of masters, and each month some excellent poems with the right sentiment, and "Walnuts and Wine," the most popular humor section in America. Doctors Discuss Blindness.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 22.—Dr. O. P. Nuckols of Pineville was the principal speaker at Tuesday's session of the sixty-fifth annual meeting of the Kentucky State Medical association. Several hundred physicians are attending. Dr. Nuckols told his hearers that half of the 70,000 blind persons in the United States might see today if sore eyes of babies had been given proper attention at the time of their birth. Dr. Nuckols, whose subject was "Preventive Medicine and Surgery," asserted that "practically all blindness can be traced to unspeakable immorality of our young men."

Bulgaria Declares War Zone.

The Serbo-Bulgarian frontier has been declared a war zone by Bulgaria, according to a semi-official dispatch from Berlin. Bulgarian troops are said to have concentrated near the Serbian frontier while German and Austro-Hungarian troops are declared to be along the Serbian border line.

The long-expected offensive against Serbia is said to have begun with a storm of artillery fire designed to cover crossings of the Danube and Save. The Teutons evidently expect to push a way toward Constantinople along the road opened by the crusaders.

COOL SUMMER DRINKS

BEVERAGES THAT ARE ENJOYABLE ON THE HOT DAYS.

Hostess Here Should Make a Selection Delightful for Her Guests and Consequently of Natural Pleasure to Herself.

Recipes for cooling beverages are ever welcome at this season, when the hostess is eager to tempt her guests.

Claret Cup.—An old friend, good if properly made, but a very insipid compound if not. The following is an old English recipe for this delectable summer drink: Stand a bottle of claret and one of soda water on ice to cool. Put a tablespoonful of granulated sugar in a claret jug with a wine glass of brandy and blend thoroughly. Add three strips of lemon peel, cut into bits, and two strips of cucumber rind, also two sprigs of fresh green mint and a tablespoonful of maraschino. Add the claret and soda water, stir well together, ice and serve immediately.

Mint Punch.—Make a sirup by boiling one quart of water and two cupsful of sugar 20 minutes. Bruise and separate a dozen sprigs of mint, cover with one and one-half cupsful of boiling water and steep for 10 minutes. Then strain and add to the sirup. Add the juice of eight lemons, two oranges, a cupful of strawberry juice and set aside to cool. When ready to serve, add one pint of claret, a large piece of ice and enough water to dilute. Garnish with mint leaves and strawberries.

India Punch.—The juice of two oranges and two lemons, one cupful of water and one cupful of sugar; boil for 10 minutes. Add this to one pint of cold tea. Chill and serve, adding a few strawberries and cherries for garnishing.

Canton Punch.—Chop a pound of Canton ginger (the kind that comes in earthenware jars), add eight cupsful of cold water and two cupsful of sugar. Cover and let stand half an hour. Then gradually bring to the boiling point and boil for 15 minutes. Then add a cupful each of orange and lemon juice. When cool, strain and serve with crushed ice.

English Lemonade.—Pare two oranges and six lemons as thinly as possible and steep them in a quart of hot (not boiling) water for four hours. Boil one and a quarter pounds of granulated sugar in three pints of water. Combine the two liquids, and add the juice of six oranges, and a dozen lemons. Stir well, strain and ice.

Cretonne Handbag.

There is a rage for things made of cretonne—not cushions and slips to cover the chairs and curtains, but things to wear.

One of the latest cretonne novelties is the cretonne handbag. It is not necessarily cheap, as the fabric from which it is made might make one think it is. For it is made and mounted in an expensive, as well as in a cheap, way. The expensive mount shows a silk lining and a substantial metal frame of good quality, and this sort of handbag can be appropriately carried with the most elaborate lingerie frock. The cheaper cretonne handbag is also pretty with lingerie frocks, especially at the seashore or in the country.

Chicken Broth With Rice.

Select a soft-meated fowl (milk-fed, if possible); disjoint and prepare for stewing. Cover with sufficient water; bring to the boil, and place in the fireless cooker for four hours or more, or simmer gently over a slow fire until tender, adding boiling water when necessary. Cook sufficient rice to thicken soup and for a pudding next day. Season the broth with salt, pepper and bay leaf.

The pieces of chicken may be lifted, drained, floured, seasoned and fried in butter, a little broth being reserved to add to the browned butter for the gravy. Garnish with parsley or cress.

Fragments of Cold Meat.

Fill an earthen dish with alternate layers of thinly sliced cold boiled potatoes and cold roast meat, well moistened with a brown sauce. Instead of a crust the dish is covered with a thick layer of boiled rice, which is dotted with bits of butter and sprinkled with cheese. It is browned in the oven, and just before serving the dish is decorated with triangles of toast and sprigs of parsley. This is a good way to serve a curry of fish or chicken.

To Clean Blankets.

To clean blankets or all wool garments shave up half a bar of any good laundry soap, add four tablespoonfuls of ammonia, put in the tub and half fill the tub with cold water. Enter the articles to be cleaned and let soak for hours. Then rinse in water containing four tablespoonfuls of ammonia. Do not wring. The articles will be just like new and will not shrink.

Potato Fritters.

Boil half a dozen potatoes, beat them and mix with three well-beaten eggs, a gill of milk, a little oil, butter. Mix well together and drop into boiling dripping. Fry a light brown, dish up and sprinkle with sugar. Serve hot.

Hard Sauce.

Cream well together one cupful of white sugar and two tablespoonfuls of butter. Add three drops of vanilla or a little sherry wine. The beaten white of an egg is often added to make it very foamy. Serve ice cold.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

The year 1914 has been the most extraordinary in the history of modern times. It has witnessed the outbreak of the great European war, a struggle so titanic that it makes all others look small.

You live in momentous times, and you should not miss any of the tremendous events that are occurring. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice-A-Week edition of the New York World. Moreover, a year's subscription to it will take you far into our next Presidential campaign.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD's regular subscription price is only 1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Hopkinsville Kentuckian together for one year for $2.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

"Learning to Be Blind."

When this frenzied war is done and the blood-sated participants gather in some tribunal to arrange the terms of peace, one prohibitive commandment should be written large on the first page of the treaty:

"Thou shalt not use destructive gases in thy warfare."

And the reason is that these gases, used for the first time in this war blind their victims.

When men shoulder muskets and march away under the flag of their country they expect the bullets and shells and saber strokes that may maim or kill. That is war, and they take their wounds or their escape in the spirit of the conflict. But when they are attacked by means of gases that leave them blind, it is not war, but brutality run to devilry. To have an arm or a leg shot away is the fortunes of battle, but to lose one's eyes is a culminating calamity unspeakable in its horrors. Maimed or half a man may still pursue his vocation, or quickly learn another—and the beauties of the world and the tenderness of home faces still are his. But to be blinded forever by the vicious action of an insidious, invisible foe, against which one can make no fight, that is the most devastating calamity that can befall a soldier.

Among the most pitiful scenes of this warfare those which depict the return of the helpless, gas-blinded men, doomed to sit in darkness the rest of their days.

This is a wanton cruelty against which civilization should rise up and protest. Of all the senses the eyesight is the most precious, and the deliberate purpose to destroy it was the invention of a fiend.

The treaty makers' first action should be to tear up all the formulas for the sight-destroying gas and make it against the laws of all nations ever to use it again.

There will be many lessons to learn after peace comes, but there will be nothing sadder, nothing more heart-breaking than the sight of those gas victims "learning to be blind."—Commercial Appeal.

The Next Best Thing To The Pine Forest For Colds Is—

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey which goes to the very root of cold troubles. It clears the throat and gives relief from that clogged and stuffed feeling. The pines have been the friend of man in driving away colds. Moreover, the pine-honey qualities are peculiarly effective in fighting children's colds. Remember that a cold broken at the start greatly removes the possibility of complications. 25c.—Advertisement.

Cossacks.
 The Cossacks are the rough riders of Europe. As the cowboys of the American plains and the Gauchos of the pampas, the Cossacks are an intensely interesting, wild, free, plain folk, who live in the saddle in the open places and whose rough democracy is the expression of the same naive, rudimentary culture as that of their new world brothers-in-spirit.
